Hrorek, King, and Caoilfhionn, Queen, Outlands

Joyous Greetings unto Our great and noble populace and all others who may come by these letters. The last chills of winter that are driven away by the warmth of hearth, family, and friends will at last give way to blessed spring. With the passing of the solstice and a new year having begun, We will be most pleased to travel the realm, knowing that the generosity and hospitality of the many fine gentles of Our glorious Kingdom is unsurpassed in all the Known World.

We were honored to begin the year in the good company of the people of Our Barony of Caerthe as We enjoyed the customs and fare of the Far East at their Tea House of the Winter Moon. The warriors of the Outlands met on the field and shared camaraderie and the arts of war at practice the following day, making Our hearts swell with pride and joy.

The following week We celebrated 12th Night with pleasure in Our Barony of the Citadel of the Southern Pass. We heard the words of the populace as We sought to find proper replacements for Their Excellencies Roger and Constance, who have expressed their wish to relinquish their position as Baron and Baroness of the Citadel of the Southern Pass. We thank Their Excellencies for the great service they have done during their tenure and We know that all their work has provided a good example to be followed by their successors. The new Baron and Baroness will take their place at Our Crown Tournament, which will be held in the Citadel of the Southern Pass in the spring.

As the month waned We parted company and Her Majesty once again enjoyed the grace and hospitality of Their Excellencies Duncan and Mary, as the season was celebrated in a most excellent style in Our Barony of Fontaine dan Sable. During this time His Majesty visited Our College of St. Golias to witness the might of His army in its preparations for war.

The close of the month found Us together again in Our Barony of Dragonsspine as We were received with warmth by Their Excellencies Lothar and Lydia at Candlemas. We took great pleasure in all the activities of the day and were awed by the culinary prowess displayed by the cooks of Dragonsspine.

Now with winter receding We look to what the future holds. We have the great honor and solemn duty to invest Don Randal Carrick and Lady Katherina von Lehman as the new Baron and Baroness of Caer Galen. Let the time they serve be as celebrated and revered as that of Their Excellencies Massimiliano and Yazida, who are well loved by all. Further yet into the future We look and see the time draws near to find Our successors. Let those who would seek the Crown of the Outlands know that it will not be easily attained. Hone your skills with spear and axe and great sword, with single-sword and florentine, weapon and shield and the style of your choice if you hope to prove victorious, for the fates shall decide what weapon is used round by round.

Now, at the last of this missive, We find that Our thoughts come back to the present. To the west is heard the drumbeat call of war. We hear the challenge contained in this fell message, and would gladly ride to meet that challenge. The army of the Outlands is indeed a mighty and terrible force, and We look forward to the fields of Estrella with grim anticipation. Be vigilante, mighty warriors of the Outlands. Be prepared. There are battles to be won, and your King calls you to WAR!!.

Kingdom Seneschal of the Outlands

To the populace of the Outlands, Greetings;

Congratulations to Baron Randal Carrick and Lady Katherina von Lehman on their elevation to Baron and Baroness of Caer Galen. I would personally like to thank Their Excellencies Massimiliano and Yazida for being shining examples of grace and nobility during their time as Baron and Baroness of Caer Galen.

The rumors of war are true! I hope your preparations for war are well under way. Please make sure that you review the entrance requirements for the event, which are published in the OH and on the Estrella War web site. If you are bringing children, please have all the paperwork for minors ready in order to speed up your entry to site and let you get on with enjoying war.

Crown Tournament will be held on March 4th, in the glorious southern Outlands. Their Excellencies Roger and Constance will be stepping down at this event, making way for their (unknown at the time of this writing) successors. Please look to Their Majesties for the requirements to enter Crown Tournament.

Every moment is an opportunity to serve!

Amitie c'est le Roi,
Mistress Leah de Montgomerie of Lark Hall

Kingdom Minister of Children

Unto the great populace of the Outlands does Lady Jayne Barber, newly appointed Kingdom Minister of Children send greetings.

I wish to thank Their Royal Majesties, Hrorek and Caoilfhionn, King and Queen of the Outlands, and Her Excellency, Mistress Leah de Montgomerie, Outlands Kingdom Seneschal for appointing me as Their Kingdom Minister of Children. Lady Sara Beauchamp, our outgoing Kingdom Minister of Children, did a wonderful job. I wish to thank Lady Sara for all of her hard work as Kingdom Minister of Children and for her support of youth activities, classes and other benefits to our youth and for creating our Guidelines for the Ministry of Children. I am excited to be of service and will be creating new youth related resources and providing easy access to these resources and other valuable information. I would love to hear from you and your ideas, things you want help with, things you want to know more about and resources that you have found valuable in your work with our youth. I will also be traveling to events throughout our kingdom and I would love to talk with you. Please email me at krege@aps.edu or call me at home at 505-293-7453.

Lady Jayne Barber

White Stag Principal Herald

Greetings, fellow Outlanders!

Drums are starting to build that thrum that heats the blood and causes the Stag to raise his antlered head to answer the call to War. As you add to the hoofbeats – and I do not speak only to heralds – please remember to take care of your voices and your overall health. Drink plenty of water or other non-alcoholic beverages to make sure your cries and commands can be heard, project from the diaphragm instead of the throat, trade out with others to rest your voices and tired feet, and remember to eat. Also remember to thank the waterbearers, who are each one a hero of the war effort. Heralds, please report your field heraldry to Plover, so he can keep an accurate tally for the Plover Challenge.

SPOTLIGHT: The White Stag office has a staff of several heralds who each handle various aspects of the kingdom's heraldic work. I hope in this section to give an overview of the tasks these fine gentles are performing, and I expect to spotlight two or three of my hardworking staff each month or so. I am very proud of the work they do, and I recommend them to you.

Trefoil, Liber, and Fretty Heralds: These members of my staff perform the duty of external, or CoA-level, commentary. Each month, they review each of the Letters of Intent generated by each kingdom, and provide further research and discussion of the Rules for Submissions, to assist the Sovereigns of Arms in the decision-making process in a Letter of Comment. They also review others' Letters of Comments, and provide answers to questions posed by other commenters or support or refute arguments made. Baron Timothy O'Brien currently holds the title of Trefoil Herald, and Dominus Meradudd Cethin fills the Liber Herald position. They may be reached at trefoil@outlandsheralds.org and liber@outlandsheralds.org. Fretty is currently vacant.

LOAR RESULTS: The September 2005 LoAR has been received. Details are available at http://www.sca.org/heraldry/loar/, and submitters will be notified by postal mail.

I remain yours in glad service and duty,
THL Sorcha MacLeod

Kingdom Hospitaller

Well, I'm back. For those whose memory is shorter than eleven years, what I mean is I have held this office before. It is good to be back.

Eleven years ago there were different issues facing this office. Now the issue is bringing in new members and keeping them. I have heard many different ideas on the care and maintenance of our new comers. Many of these ideas are excellent. I would like my office to act as a clearinghouse for these great ideas from the populace.

I know that many of the shires and baronies of this kingdom have created handouts and brochures to help in their membership drives. I would like copies to help me compile one of my own for this office.

I appreciate everyone's efforts in helping new comers feel at home and welcome in our kingdom. Please send me your ideas. Hopefully, soon I will have an Outlands.org email box, until then send any messages to the Hospitaller's office in care of hospitaller@outlands.org

Kingdom Earl Marshall

The Outlands fighting force is readying itself for Estrella War in February. Those of you that re not attending please remember that you can help the army by being there to help train them. Acting the part of the enemy is good training. Those who may be interested in marshalling at the war, be it one battle, a day or more, drop me a note at earlmarshal@outlands.org

On a more business end, because of the way the kingdom actually travels, I have added a couple of regional deputies to the mix. These good gentles have agreed to stand in the areas below, they are also able to authorize those under 18 years of age per the written rules.

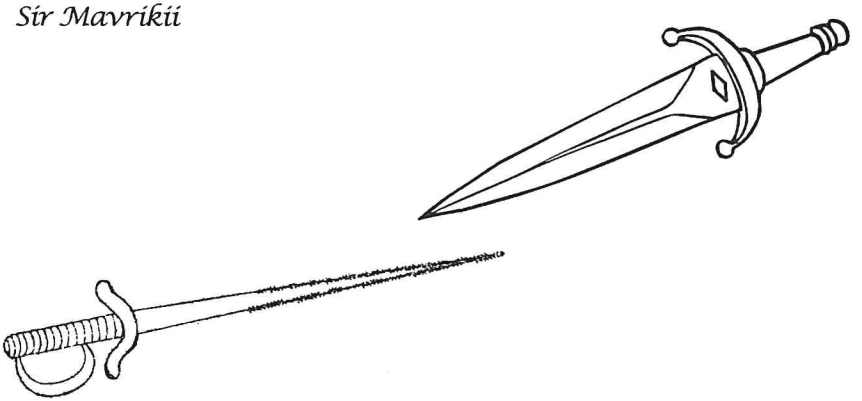
Far South - Baron Roger
South - Sir Gregor
Middle - Sir Haroun
North - Count Bela
Far North - Currently still me <grin>

Last bit of business. I'd like to get a somewhat more accurate counting of the fighters in each group. So, with each Group Marshal's next report, please include a list of the authorized fighters in your area. This will also help the MOL office as well.

Oh yeah, there is a little thing coming up called ESTRELLA WAR!!!!!!!!!!

Let's fight and have fun.

Sir Mavrikii



Kingdom Marshall of Fence

Greetings from the Rapier Marshal,

I look forward to seeing as many of you as possible at Estrella, both on the field and around the fires afterwards, telling stories of chivalry, honour and -- we hope -- of victory. Remember, also, to volunteer to help and to keep the war safe and fun for everyone.

When we are there, be smart and be safe; drink plenty of water and remember that our enemies on the field will be our friends afterwards. Take care not to break them, be aware of your blade and don't take a much longer or newer blade out onto the field unless you've used it extensively first. (After all -- it's not the weapon that's unsafe if you haven't practiced with it. It's you, and we'll all frown on that)

In Service

Don Charles Robert Blackstone

Kingdom Minister of the Lists

To the Kingdom of the Outlands, Greetings!

As many of you are preparing for the great Estrella War, I would remind those planning to fight to check your membership and authorization expiration dates. There is nothing more frustrating than a mistake, and being unable to play.

Also, for the heavy weapons fighters, please plan to join me at the Outlands Prize Tournament. I hope for a good turnout, and great fighting. I hope to see you there.

Lastly, I am setting up a list of MOLs "at large". If anyone is interested in conducting tournaments, without being the local group list officer, please let me know. If for some reason, a MOL is needed either for a tournament or event, this list can be forwarded to autocrats, tournament sponsors or Marshals to find a person who will be in attendance, and willing to run the list. I will need only SCA name, local group name, and a phone number or email address as a point of contact.

If you have never conducted a list, and are interested in learning, please let me know, and I can find someone to show you the basics. It is a fairly simple process, although there is a definite need for attention to detail and basic organizational skills.

I hope everyone has a safe and enjoyable War; I will see you there!

As Ever Yours,
Lady Mariah Abramsdottir

Kingdom Chronicler

Greetings -

There is a new deputy to the Chronicler's Office that I would like to thank for her assistance. Baroness Anne Bigod has graciously agreed to be the layout editor for the Outlandish Herald. Her help and assistance is greatly appreciated!

There has been a great deal of confusion recently about what constitutes an "official" event, and when awards can and cannot be given at events. According to November 2005 revision of Corpora:

II. Events

C. Business Requiring Prior Announcement

Formal actions and announcements with long-term impact on the Society may occur only at Society events for which a full announcement including date, time, and place has been published in advance in the appropriate corporate publication. These actions include Crown and Coronet Tournaments, Coronations and Investitures, appointment of officers, presentation of awards and titles, proclamation of law, and the establishment or advancement of branches. However, deputy officers and officers below principality level need not be appointed at published events.

A full announcement is defined in the Society Chronicler's Policies as:

A complete event announcement must appear in the newsletter at least the month of the event (i.e. in the June issue for a June event). If the event takes place in the first 10 days of the month, the announcement may appear in the preceding issue of the Kingdom newsletter to meet this requirement. To be considered complete, an announcement must contain:

- Date of the event (day and month) If the event will not be held during the Common Era year noted on the front cover of the newsletter, the announcement must also include the Common Era year
- The time of the event: when the site opens and closes
- The name of the sponsoring group
- The location (name, street address, and town) of the site. The postal code should also be included if available.
- The name (both Society and modern) and address of the autocrat
- If there is a fee being charged for the event, the statement "Make Checks payable to <SCA, Inc. – Group Name>" (or for international groups: "Make checks payable to <Group Name>) must also be included.

Having your event listed on the Kingdom Calendar assures that people know you are having an event. Two things must occur in this Kingdom for your event to be considered official, (1) You MUST complete the event registration form and provide a copy to the Kingdom; and, (2) you must publish a COMPLETE event announcement for at least one month prior to the event being held. If these two conditions are not met, none of the official activities listed in Corpora can be conducted.

If you have any questions regarding these policies, please contact myself, or Mistress Leah, Kingdom Seneschal.

A final reminder, all event announcements, event notices, letters, artwork, etc, are due to the Chronicler by the 1st of the month prior to publication in an ELECTRONIC format. This means that all electronic event announcements, etc, to be published in the April 2006 OH must be received by the Chronicler by March 1, 2006. Any event announcement not received in an electronic format will not be published.

In service to the Stag,

Baroness Emma of Essex

Kingdom Minister of Arts & Sciences

Greetings Good Artisans!

I wish well all those traveling to WAR! Be sure to visit the Arts and Sciences competition and display. Outlanders are sure to do well this year.

Hot on the heels of WAR will be the Kingdom A&S Competition in April. This will be held in the Shire of Windkeep. For the moment, I can say that pre-registration is required. A link will be set from the Kingdom A&S webpage to do this online (preferred) or it can be done by phoning or writing to the Kingdom A&S minister. The required information is: Artisan SCA Name, Artisan Mundane name, Artisan email (if available), artisan phone (if no email), name of entry with description. Last date to register is April 24. Times and other details will be announced as they become available.

We can not have a competition without Judges. All those willing to act as judges are implored to contact the A&S Minster to volunteer. Last year I was able to have all the judging pre-arranged before even arriving on site. This worked very well and it is my intention to do this again this year. If you are planning to attend, please let me know in advance that you are willing to judge.

Concerning the judging. After much discussion, the rules and methods for judging Arts competitions here in the Outlands are under review. If the revisions can be completed in time to be publicly distributed before the event, then new rules may be used at the next competition. I can not say for certain at this time, but will let you know as soon as may be.

In Service,
THLady Chiara Grassi

Kingdom Seneschal of the Outlands

Happy New Year, Outlanders!

Congratulations and thank you to both Lady Siobhan and THL Ordog Magyar Bela for assuming the Kingdom Waterbearer and Kingdom Hospitaller positions respectively. Their gift of service enriches our realm.

Also, we will be in need of a Kingdom Chronicler in the near future. Please look to Baroness Emma's article in this month's OH for information on how to apply for this position, should you be interested.

I'd also like to thank everyone for their hard work this past year on the Toys for Tots drive. I know that this year in particular was a difficult one, with so many choices for charities to donate to, but your contributions to Toys for Tots help make the Christmas season more joyous for those less fortunate than ourselves. I do not have the final count at this time. As soon as I have that information, I'll make sure to let everyone know.

War is upon us! Remember, fighting and shopping are not the only things you can do! Volunteering is not only personally rewarding, but it also benefits your Kingdom and your local group. Please contact Lady Slaine to find out more information about security, marshalling, waterbearing and many more exciting opportunities to be found at War!

Every moment is the opportunity to serve!
Mistress Leah de Montgomerie of Lark Hall

Kingdom Minister of the Lists

To the Kingdom of the Outlands, Warm greeting, and hopes for the happiest of new years!

I hope everyone had a safe and happy holiday season, with many good memories to last through the remaining cold months. "Toys for Tots" was the order of business in the past month, and I would like to thank everyone who participated in those great events and toy drives. It is an honor to play in a world where children are treated as the gifts they are.

Now onto new business....I need to create a new roster of local group list officers and their deputies. I would ask each MOL or seneschal to supply me with:

* SCA and legal names
* Local group
* Membership number and expiration
* Anticipated date for stepping down as officer
* Mailing address
* Phone number or email address
* Name of Emergency Deputy
* Phone number of email address for Emergency Deputy
* Name(s) of all other deputies
* Phone number or email address for each deputy

Please provide the roster information no later than January 15, 2006 via email to mol@outlands.org or by phone at 505-334-1955. If your local group does not have a list officer, please let me know that as well.

As Ever Yours,
Lady Mariah Abramsdottir

Greet the day, one and all.

The time draws near when two great and wondrous events will take place in the Southern Outlands. Crown Tournament and the Investiture of the next Baron and Baroness of the Citadel.

The first of course is the finding of an Heir for Their Royal Majesties, Hrorek and Caoilfhionn, mighty King and graceful Queen of the Outlands.

Their Majesties have decreed that all entrants make their way to the Barony of the Citadel of the Southern Pass to test their strength of arms in the contest to discover the Royal heirs. The tournament will begin at the pleasure of the Crown, or close to 10:00 am. The list shall be fought in the following style: Best 2 of 3, double elimination using 7 weapons styles. These styles being; 6' spear – weapon & shield – axe, 5' and under – single sword – great sword – Florentine – weapon of choice.

Date: March 4, 2006

Before each round a weapon style will be chosen at random. All the fighters will use that specific style for that specific round. After that round has been completed, that style will be eliminated and will not be drawn again. The bye-fights will be non destructive and will be fought by a person of the Crown's choice.

The tourney site is dry without even the slightest chance of wetness in the form of any type of alcohol. The feast hall is wet ONLY from the hours of 5 – 9 pm. As with all things, the schedule of events is purely at the discretion of the Crown.
The second but no less important event is the Investiture at evening Court of the new Baron and Baroness of the Citadel of the Southern Pass. Our beloved Baron and Baroness, Roger and Constance, request the presence of one and all Outlanders to join with them in the celebration and Investiture of their successors.

Please note: The tables we will be using will be round and sit 8. Know that only enclosed candles and those which in no way can drip wax upon the fine linen tablecloths of our hosts are allowed. Be forewarned that the autocrats will be most vigilant about this.

You may bring your own libations into the hall between 5 and 9 pm OR you may partake of a full cash bar in the hall which will also be available for sodas. The choice is yours.

The site has showers for the gentlemen if they should choose to utilize them.

Silent Auction at Crown Tournament

This last year has seen a world with several major tragedies and the joyous contributions for Toys-4-Tots. The contributions from members of the Society were outstanding and wondrous. Thanks to everyone for their share. As there is always a need for aid and contributions for causes which develop throughout the Society, a cause closer to home and to benefit every member of the Outlands we will be holding a Silent Auction to benefit the Outlandish Herald at Crown Tournament in the Barony of the Citadel of the Southern Pass on March 4th.

We ask for your generosity in providing items to auction and also your support in bidding and obtaining these items. Please contact Duchess Kathryn (kballar @ unm.edu) if you are willing to contribute an item for this auction and further details. Thank you all for your continued support.

The Board of Directors needs your help! We ask that you write or email the Board giving us your comments regarding any of the nominees on this list with whom you are familiar. While all commentary is more than welcome, we find it especially helpful to read your assessments of the nominee's abilities in areas such as working with diverse groups of people, understanding of varied aspects of the SCA, ability to plan and carry through projects to completion, ability to meet deadlines and keep up with correspondence, and past experiences in either SCA or modern world capacities that would be useful on a nonprofit corporation's Board of Directors. We also strongly encourage you to send us the name and contact information of anyone you feel would make a good candidate for the Board of Directors. All commentary is kept confidential, and new Directors never see the commentary made about them. Please address comments to the Ombudsman for Board Recruiting: Lis Schraer, 3651 Hartford St., St. Louis, MO 63116, or send them via email to recruiting@sca.org.
